ALTER ESTATE EXCEEDS MILLION.

An inventory of the holdings of the late Franklin Alter filed in the Probate Court at Cincinnati late Monday showed that his personal property amounted to $1,321,817.90. No valuation was made of his real estate. Mr. Alter was well known in this city.

Miss Isabelle Key, student at Miami University, Oxford, O., is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Key of Walnut street.

JOSH DEVORE OUT OF THE GAME.

Friends here have received word from Josh Devore, who signed with the Philadelphia Nationals, saying that he had injured his right hand so badly that he would probably never be able to play ball again.

Mrs. W. D. Cochran, Miss Lucy Keith Browning, Mr. Laurence Browning and Mr. Pierce Browning, Jr., left Tuesday afternoon for a visit to friends and relatives in Washington City.

PRESBYTERIAL

Holds First Day's Meeting At Central Presbyterian Church Tuesday—Excellent Program.

The Ebenezer Woman's Presbyterian church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock with Scripture and prayer by the vice president, Mrs. W. O. Cochran. This was followed by a welcome to the delegates by Miss Lucy Lee of this city, which was ably responded to by Miss Emma Griffith. The rest of the morning was given to reports and two short talks, "An Ideal Presbyterian," by Mrs. W. M. Charlton, and "The Possibilities in the Use of Literature," by Mrs. James Butler.

Noon-day luncheon was served at the church. The afternoon devotional service was led by Mrs. A. S. Venable. After a report from Miss Ruth MacClintock, a synodical delegate, a round table discussion of "A Good Missionary Society" was conducted by Mrs. Shelby Wilson, Miss Simmons, Mrs. Lauderdale and Mrs. Cochran.

A splendid missionary address on "The Congo Woman," was given by Mrs. A. C. McKinnon. After a hymn was sung and collection taken, the "Quiet Hour" service was led by Miss Jennie Stevig, which closed the afternoon session.

A large number of visitors were present at the evening meeting and greatly enjoyed the address of Mrs. C. E. Wells of Guerrant, Ky., on "Incidents of Mission School Life." Her description of the work and the success attending such work was most inspiring to those interested in home missions.

The quartets by the High School girls and boys, and also by the choir, as well as solos by Mr. Hall Strode and by Mrs. Bartlett, were pleasingly rendered. At the close of the program those present were invited to remain and meet the visitors and enjoy a social hour. The Sunday school room was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Frappe was served.

The Presbyterian is fortunate and happy in having with it Mrs. Cleveland of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, formerly of Augusta, to whom credit is due in no small degree for being the organizer of the Presbyterian in Ebenezer Presbyterian. She was ably and enthusiastically encouraged and aided by one of the former presidents and friends of the organization, Mrs. Katherine Shultz Poyntz, whose memory will always be an inspiration to the local society, as well as to the other societies of the union.

Following are the out-of-town delegates and visitors in attendance at the meeting:

Miss Ruth MacClintock, Mrs. James Butler, Mrs. A. S. Venable and Miss Emma Griffith of Millersburg; Mrs. W. O. Cochran, Mrs. Fannie Hays, Mrs. Marion Lauderdale, Mrs. James Norrie and Misses McKibben and Stroube of Augusta; Mrs. Cleveland of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati; Mrs. Riggs of Ludlow; Mrs. Tadlock of Paris; Misses Lord and Simmons of Covington; Misses Ransom and Bedinger of Richwood; Mrs. Martin and Miss Darnall of Carlisle, Rev. Thompson of Brazil; Miss Stevig of Danville; Mrs. Theobald, Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Love of Grayson; Mrs. Charlton of Louisville; Mrs. Myers of Maysfield; Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Claybrook, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Richard Durrett, Misses Hunter and Allison of Washington.

TURNER MUST STAND TRIAL AT LEXINGTON.

(Lexington Herald.) Deputy Sheriff William White will leave this morning for Evansville, Indiana, to bring back Theodore Turner, under arrest, Mrs. Turner, an indictment for robbery, returned by the Fayette county grand jury. Turner, well known as a baseball player in the Blue Grass and Central Leagues and the American Association, is charged with complicity with Charles White, now lodged in the Fayette county jail, in the robbery of Charles Gilbert in this city some time in March. Gilbert lost a gold watch, diamond pin and some money.

NEW STREET WORK IN EAST END WILL NOT INTERRUPT STREET CAR TRAFFIC.

The Maysville Street Railway Company received a carload of new rails Tuesday. These rails will be used to keep a continuous street car service through East Second street when the new brick and asphalt street improvements begin. Only one side of the street will be torn up at the start, which will allow the company to construct a temporary track on the opposite side.

UNION MEETING

To Begin At Mill Creek On Tuesday, August 1—Noted Evangelist Coming.

Arrangements have just been completed for a big union revival tent meeting to be held at Mill Creek, beginning Tuesday, August 1.

The churches which will participate in the meeting are the Helena Methodist church, Lewisburg Baptist church and Mill Creek Christian church.

The preaching will be done by the famous evangelist, Rev. J. A. Trostle of the Transylvania Presbytery, thus making a representation of four denominations, something which is very much out of the ordinary in this section.

Active work will start soon for making the meeting a successful one.

COVINGTON MAY GET RAILROAD TERMINAL.

Paris, Ky., April 19.—It is reported here that the Louisville & Nashville railroad contemplates the removal of its terminals from here to Covington and Corbin, points at each end of the division. No confirmation of the contemplated move can be obtained here.

Louisville, Ky., April 19.—The L. & N. officials here are reticent on the subject of the contemplated removal of the terminals from Paris. They will neither affirm nor deny the report, but acknowledge that "some changes" are contemplated at Paris.

Misses Mary Esther Hoeflich and Mary Dewees Poyntz, Prof. W. J. Caplinger and Prof. Robert Hoeflich left Tuesday afternoon in the latter's automobile to attend the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association at Louisville.

Miss Margaret R. Brown will open a class in bookkeeping at Miss Cartmell's Commercial school rooms in the First National Bank building, Monday, April 24. For further information phone 162 or 359. a15-19-21

$50,000 SUIT

Of J. S. White's Administrator Against C. & O. Railroad Is Settled Out of Court—Amount of Settlement Not Made Known.

The $50,000 damage suit of N. C. Ridgway, administrator of J. S. White, deceased, against the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, arguments of which were begun in the Mason Circuit Court Monday, was settled out of court Tuesday. The amount of money paid by the railroad to the plaintiff could not be learned from the attorneys for either side, but it is understood that it was a large amount.

It will be remembered that Mr. J. S. White was killed near the C. & O. railroad station at South Ripley, this county, on February 26, 1916, when a wagon in which he was riding was struck by C. & O. fast train No. 5. Mr. White was a prominent insurance and real estate man of Ripley, O.

Worthington, Cochran & Browning represented the railroad in the case, while Slattery & Rees had charge of the case for the plaintiff.

DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE DANCE.

A number of friends of Miss Florence Dodson of East Third street, gave a surprise dance for her at Neptune Hall Tuesday which was one of the most charming social functions of the spring season. Refreshments were served at Berley's.

Miss Maud Berry is a Cincinnati visitor.
